Don't Hold Back

At our Junior Honor Society induction, the Senior High Honor Society President, Andrew Chartrand, shared a wonderful message of advice to our middle school students. While unique in topic, it was completely appropriate for our young adults in grades 6-8. He addressed the idea of failure. While failure is often seen as a negative concept, Andrew spoke about how important it is to rise up from that failure, learn from the mistakes and press on to the next level. It was an excellent message.

I would like to add to Andrew's message. Failure is a part of life and we can learn from our mistakes. If that is the case stepping out and taking a risk should be much easier. Complacency can be a killer of growth, but stretching and taking a risk is the fertilizer that can springboard a person to the next level. It is easy to stay in a comfortable space, and at times it is fine to do that. However, there comes a time to push beyond the simple boundaries of our comfort and develop new ideas and learning opportunities.

As we approach spring, I begin to think about new beginnings and new opportunities. I view school as a place that we can provide support for our students to stretch, grow and learn by taking advantages of new opportunities. It's not a time to hold back and be complacent. Rather, it is the best phase in life to experience something new.

As opportunities arise in fine arts, athletics, academics and other areas of school, I ask that you encourage your child to stretch and try something outside of their comfort zone. We are at a time when students are planning for their courses next year, what a great opportunity to sign up for the more challenging academic paths! With your support and support from our faculty and staff, even if your child doesn't succeed, the landing will be soft, and learning will happen. Don't hold back!

Sincerely,

Todd G. Green, Superintendent of Schools

Got a question or Concern? Who do you contact?

Chain of Communication for Information

In the interest of promoting effective communication with our stakeholders, we have developed a checklist outlining the personnel to contact with a question and/or concern. Most often a question, or concern can be answered in a face to face discussion with the individual most closely in contact with the situation. In order to facilitate the use of this checklist, when you contact office personnel you will be asked if you have contacted the staff member most immediately involved in or responsible for addressing the question or concern. If you have done so and did not receive a response or resolution, then you should proceed to the next contact (listed below).

Beaver River Central School Transportation

*Beginning for the 2024-2025 school year

Drop-Off Policy

One Stop – One Alternate

In order to maintain the safety of our students being dropped off by a school bus, the BRCSD Transportation Department is instituting a clear policy on the number of drop-off locations for students. In the past, the School District has allowed multiple drop off locations depending on the day of the week, and other variables. However, we have found that with many locations for drop-off there is an increase in likelihood that a student may be dropped off at the wrong location. We understand that there may be childcare concerns for this year that have already been arranged by families. Therefore, there will be no change for the 2023-24 school year. However, beginning in the 2024-2025 school year the following transportation guidelines will be put in place:

Students will be allowed one primary drop-off location and one alternative (secondary) drop –off location. Both destinations will be kept on file in the transportation office.

It will be assumed that each child will be dropped off at their primary location unless a parent/guardian sends in a note for each day the student is to go to their alternative location.

Only notes given out by the transportation office will be accepted. Therefore, notes are to be written to the transportation office. (A school bus driver will not accept a hand-written note even if it is by the parent/guardian on file)

Understand that it is the parent's responsibility to have an adult present and visible at the drop-off site each afternoon for Grades PK-5. If no one is visible, the student will remain on the bus and return to school.

Elementary Principal

Dear Elementary Parents and Guardians,

The Character Counts trait for the month of January was Responsibility. This year each teacher chose students who showed responsibility in the classroom, which they received a sticker. Those names were turned into our Home and School Coordinator, Ms. Davoy. Certificates and a positive reward for doing a good job were given out. The student's pictures were taken and displayed in the cafeteria for students to see the following month. This is done each month for the current Character Count trait.

Mr. Olmstead, the school counselor, also prepared a lesson about responsibility. Teachers were able to sign up for. Mr. Olmstead's lesson focused on how the responsibilities of being a student compare to the responsibilities of a dentist. During the lesson, Mr. Olmstead reinforced teachers' expectations of what a responsible student looks like and why being responsible is important.

In February, our Character Counts trait is Fairness. Fairness is defined as considering different perspectives and advocating for fair treatment for all. Fairness is a hard concept for children because they want to think of fairness as equal. However, we have to teach children that we are part of a community and not a society of individuals. It's important to know that we have to value and be fair to others' perspectives and opinions.

The Literacy Celebration Committee is working on the kickoff assembly for February 29th. This year's theme is about the Olympics. The Literacy Celebration will take place the whole month of March. Stay tuned for more information.

I would like to thank Ms. Shirley Rice who has been the long-term substitute for Mrs. Kennedy since the beginning of the school year.

Lastly, I am very thankful that the school allows for Family Swim to be open on Wednesday nights at no cost to parents. However, we do need your help. It is a requirement that parents stay with the students the whole time they are in the pool. Parents are welcome to get in the pool with their children or stay on the balcony during the event.

Kendaly J Lyman Wright Sincerely,

Dr. Lyman-Wright
Elementary Principal

THIRD GRADE NEWS

Hello from Third Grade!

The third graders have been busy this year with completing a fundraising project and learning about their future with college and careers, as well as kicking off with multiplication facts!

In November our third graders held a fundraiser “Love For Laney” for a classmate with cancer. They had the opportunity to sell Beaver keychains, collect money, and provide delivery for the fundraiser. The students were very excited and motivated to help out their classmate Laney and to be a part of giving back to the community.

Our elementary school counselor, Mr. Olmstead, has been teaching the third graders about careers and future jobs or goals they might have. Each student started out the year writing down a few careers they would like to do when they grew up. After some classroom discussions with Mr. Olmstead, the third graders took a trip to Jefferson Community College. The main goal of the trip was to expose the students to a college, what it looks like, and why a student would attend college.

The third grade students have been introduced to multiplication facts. They continue to work hard to study those facts both at home and at school. We spend time each day practicing those facts so they can be mastered. We have also learned many different strategies to help us solve multiplication problems, such as using arrays and repeated addition.

Looking forward to the next couple of months with the kick-off of our family Literacy Celebration: “Take an Olympic Leap Into Reading” and our science Wonder Day.

Thank you for your continued support this year.

MIDDLE SCHOOL/HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Parents,

We cannot believe that the first semester is over, and we are at the halfway mark of the year.

The Junior Honor Society Induction for selected middle school students was held on February 2, 2024 in the school auditorium. We honored middle school students who have demonstrated a certain level of citizenship, scholarship, leadership, service and character.

The following students were recognized as BOCES Students of the Quarter.

Grace Davis, Integrated Production & Design I
Makayla Edick, Veterinary Practices I
Ryken Pominville, Environmental Conservation & Forestry I
Madyson Swartz, Medical Careers
Jaiden Aucter, Criminal Justice II
Aidin Lamers, Carpentry II
Macey Hoch, Veterinary Practices II

Academically, this is an important time of year as we have finished the first semester. Students who are struggling in a course can make the changes now to be successful. Please reach out to teachers if there are courses that your students are struggling in. Additionally, students who are doing well in classes need to keep it up, as winter is an easy time to slide academically.

Soon, we will be implementing an electronic method for students to report various concerns to administration. Our hope is that this reporting mechanism will help us to proactively address student concerns.

We are so fortunate to have such great students and dedicated teachers. Thank you for your continued support of our school community

Sincerely,

Daniel Rains, MS/HS Principal

Troy Hebert, MS/HS Assistant Principal

FFA NEWS

FFA Ignite Recap

On January 20, 2024, five FFA members traveled to Marathon, New York to attend the first FFA Ignite Conference. The conference was split into three different pathways depending on grade levels. Each pathway had a different theme; Spark, Fuel, and Illuminate. Spark focused on the value of exploration, discovery and engagement. Leaders spark their own potential by taking advantage of opportunities and taking responsibility for their actions. Fuel focused on the foundational skill of leading ourselves. Leaders fuel their performance, growth, and success by investing in mindset, personal skill, networks, and capacity. Illuminate focused on leveling up our leadership to begin to focus on leading others. Leaders who center others in their decision making and actions bring light to organizations, individuals, and entire communities. Each group participated in many engaging activities such as a rubber band challenge, string and marker challenge, and relay races. The activities encouraged communication, teamwork and practicing leadership skills. The five members learned a lot, had fun and look forward to sharing their newfound knowledge/skills with the rest of the FFA chapter at the next meeting as well as put it to use in their own life adventures.

Upcoming Events:
